DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Newly submitted claim 18 is directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: Claim 18 is a subcombination of the previous presented claims. No web butler has been presented previously and entails a further concept that requires additional search consideration.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claim 18 is withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-3, 6-8 and 10-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, lines 3-4, "an individual only by a computer of the individual" is improper syntax and not clear.

Claim 10, lines 3-4, "a processor operating under sole control of an individual" is not clearly supported from the original disclosure. Thus, the parameters of such language is not clear.

4. Claims 1-3, 6-8 and 10-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Tamayo et al., US 6,836,773 or Applicant's Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) submitted February 2, 2006 disclosing the article "Customers Love Gator" or "Grab the Gator".

Tamayo discloses, e.g. Figs. 7, 8, web, 802, web pages, web mining system, 108, 812, data mining engine 822 and financial information to complete transactions.

Regarding both IDS articles, "Customers Love Gator" or "Grab the Gator" information is deemed of an individual.

Applicant's REMARKS have been reviewed, but are not convincing. No claim language explicitly recites under the sole control of a computer user as proffered. Also, the term individual does not preclude an individual business. The claim language does not provide a line of demarcation over the cited references.

5. Claims 1-3, 6-8 and 10-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Applicant's IDS article titled "Real Estate Cyberchips."

Regarding the IDS articles, the information is deemed of an individual.

Applicant's REMARKS have been reviewed, but no specific comments are directed towards "Real Estate Cyberchips" cited above. Applicant's general REMARKS are not convincing.

6. A further reference of interest is noted on the attached PTO-892.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
